

The Sangre de Cristo Anthroposophy Group welcomes back Glen Williamson to Santa Fe.

Kaspar Hauser

The Open Secret of the Foundling Prince

Told by actor and storyteller Glen Williamson (in English)

*A true story of an innocent boy imprisoned in a dark cell
for most of his childhood.*

*In a journey through darkness
to light,
this tale explores what it means to be human.*

187 years ago a strange boy appeared on the streets of Nürnberg, barely able to stand, walk or speak. In Kaspar Hauser: The Open Secret of the Foundling Prince, historical facts and characters mix with a supernatural tale of a golden house, a wicked stepmother, and a boy kept in a dark cellar for most of his childhood. Who was he? And why does his story still affect us?

Created as an epic fairytale with historical interludes, this story includes inspiring spiritual pictures as well as the latest scientific research about one of 19th Century Europe's most compelling figures.

Friday, November 9, 2018 6:30pm

Santa Fe Woman's Club and Library Association
1616 Old Pecos Trail, Santa Fe, NM

6:30 to 8:45pm with an intermission
Q & A following performance

The UNM German program is organizing a visit to this event. We will organize ride shares, and we will have a tailgate party (Ladeklappparty) in Santa Fe before the show in honor of the 29th anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall. Everybody is welcome. Bring friends, parents, pets ...

Tickets: $ 10 (for everybody who attends with the UNM German group)

Please let your German teacher or Dr. Schröter (kaddisch@gmail.com) know whether you will attend.

