

GREK 1110. Greek I

Course Description

This course serves as an introduction to the fundamentals of the historic Greek language and culture. The aims of this course are to acquire basic skills in reading, writing, and comprehension in order to read authentic Greek texts with the help of a dictionary. Students will also study the history of the Greek language, texts, and culture.

Student Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course, students will:

1. Have a basic sense of the history of the Greek language
2. Have a basic understanding of Greek grammar
3. Have learned a basic vocabulary of Greek words
4. be able to use a lexicon to find appropriate meanings of Greek words within basic authentic Greek texts
5. be able to read (aloud) and understand short, basic passages from authentic Greek texts
6. be able to translate short, basic passages from authentic Greek texts
7. be able to analyze the grammar and syntax of short, basic passages from authentic Greek texts
8. be able to write short and basic sentences in Greek that are grammatically correct
9. be able to discuss cultural behavior or issues related to the Hellenic world.